

A Really Hot Spot

Three friends were thrown into a fiery furnace. Why? Because they would not bow down and worship the golden image of the king. They believed in the true God and would have nothing to do with worshiping a false god. This made the king angry, so he punished them by putting them into the furnace. An angel of God saved them, and they were not hurt. (Daniel 3)

Directions: Decode the puzzle to find out who these brave men were.
