

Going, Going, Gone!

Directions: There are physical objects that we connect with certain Bible people. Find who donated these items that are listed for sale at the Antique Auction.

Antique Auction Today

Ornamented Robe—Beautiful robe, richly decorated. Made of the finest cloth and most expensive trims. Given by a loving father to his favorite son. Highly prized.

Papyrus Basket—Sturdy, handcrafted, heavyweight basket. Made by an Israelite woman enslaved in Egypt. Held a baby while floating on the Nile River.

Beautiful Harp—Finely tuned instrument, simply carved. Used by a boy when he played it for King Saul in his court.

Crown—Jeweled crown worn by a queen. Was given as a sign of royalty and power when she won favor with King Xerxes. One of a kind and very valuable.

Terms: Cash

Who donated each item?

Ornamented Robe _____ (Genesis 37:2–3)

Papyrus Basket _____ (Exodus 2:1–6)

Beautiful Harp _____ (1 Samuel 16:23)

Crown _____ (Esther 2:17)